

Videos

You might need to convert a video because you want a faster download time, or you want to use a more accessible format (.wmv, for example.)

Video Converters

What's Inside

- Instructions: How to download, install and use both Miro and Freemake Video Converters.
- Instructions: How to upload a video to your TrainCaster course.
- Tutorial: A screencast to show you how to upload videos to TrainCaster.

Help

FREE converters:

- ✓ Miro
- ✓ Freemake

Which is easier?
Which is faster?

Comparison

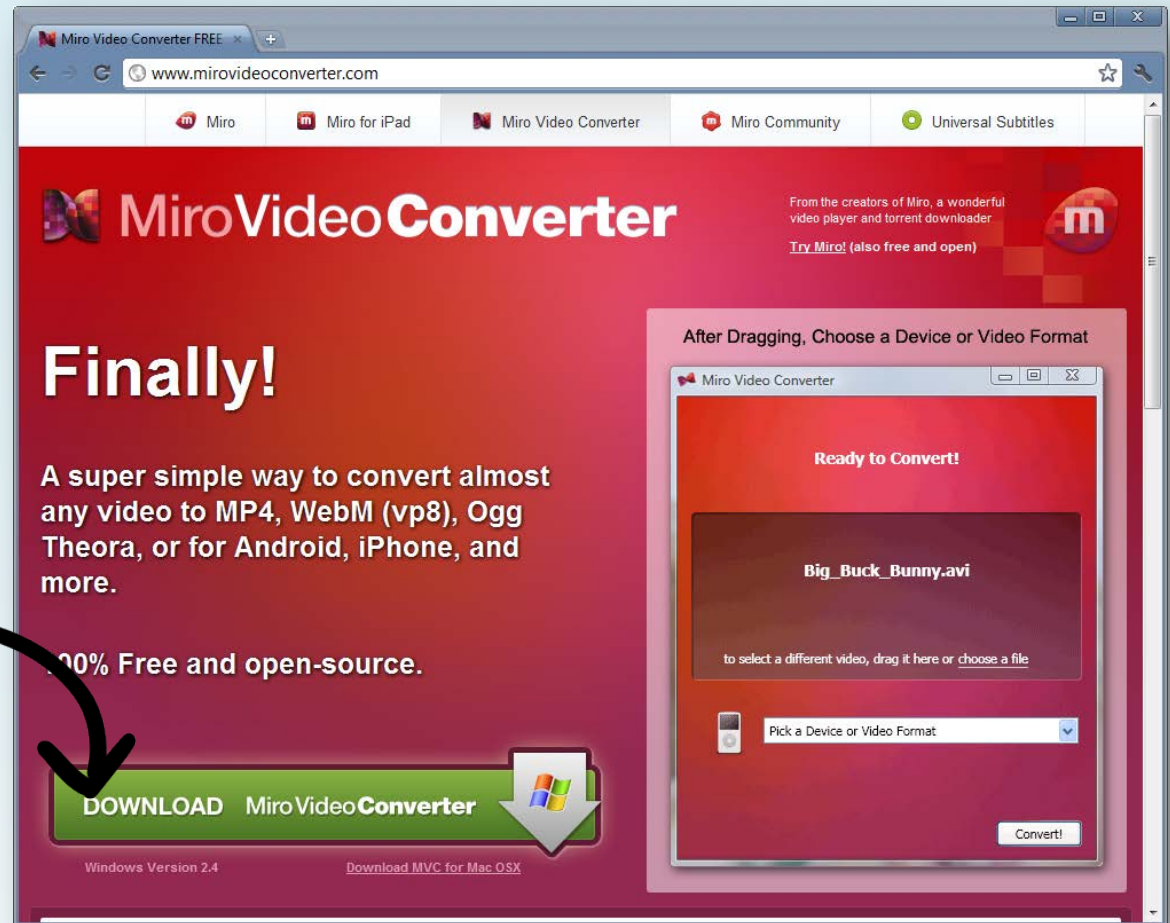

Miro Video Converter:

- Easiest to use.
- Limited output options.
- Use if you need to quickly convert to .mp4

Freemake Video Converter:

- Easy to use.
- More output options.
- Use if you want to trim your video and choose from a variety of output formats.

Click the download button to get the converter for Windows or Mac.

MIRO - Overview

1. Go to <http://www.mirovideoconverter.com/> to download Miro Video Converter. It's free.
2. Click the green button to download.
3. Install the video converter on your computer.

1

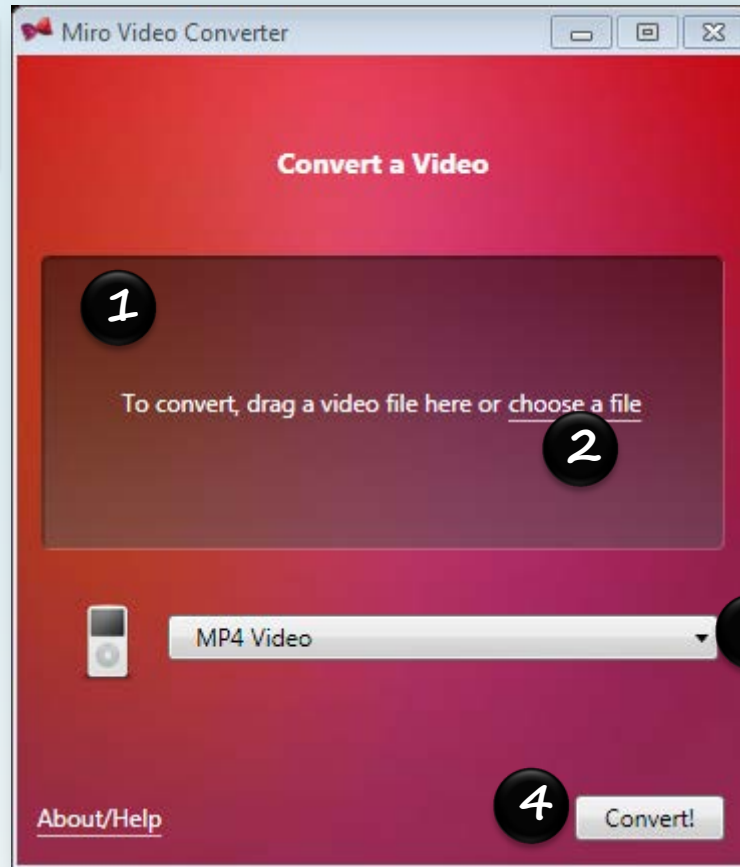

Drag a video to the dark box to convert it.

3

Select the mp4 output format.

4

Click 'Convert!'

2

Or, click here to browse for the video on your computer.

MIRO -Convert

1. Select a video to convert.
2. Select MP4 Video as the output type.
3. Click 'Convert!'.

FREEMAKE Overview

1. Freemake is very easy to use. Go to http://www.freemake.com/free_video_converter/ to download.
2. Convert video, audio, dvd's and photos to use on the web.
3. Many output file types available based on the file you're converting.

1

Click the +video button to select a video from your computer.

2

Scroll to choose the output type: wmv, MPEG, or MP4.

2

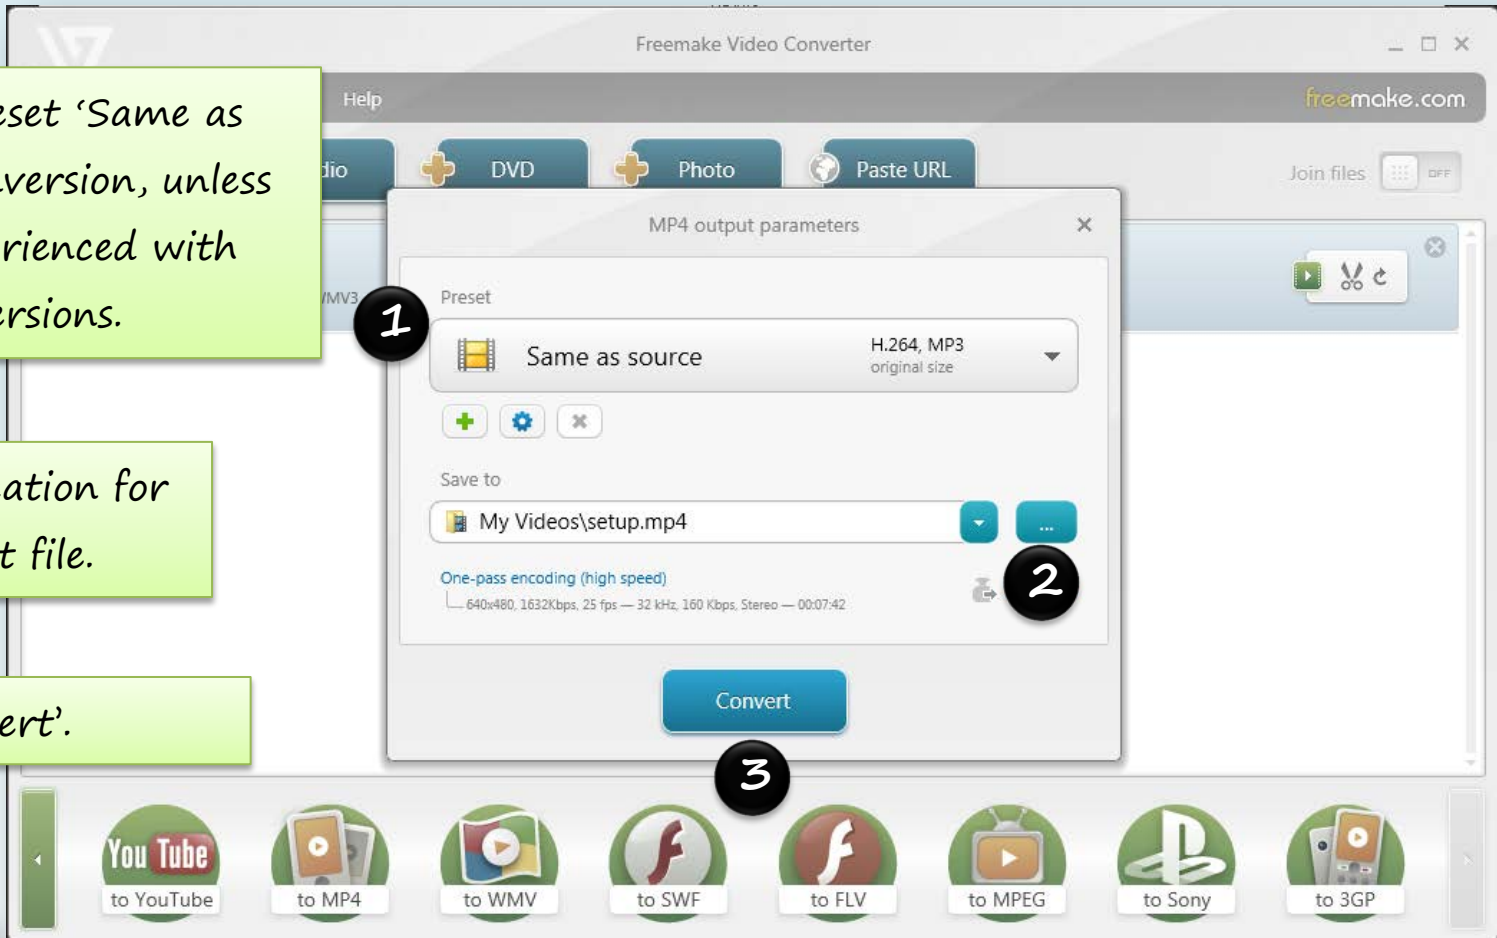

FREEMAKE How To

- Add a video for conversion.
- You can add several videos for conversion in a batch.
- Many output file types available based on the file you're converting.

1 Use the preset 'Same as Source' conversion, unless you're experienced with video conversions.

2 Select a location for your output file.

3 Click 'Convert'.

FREEMAKE How To

- Add a video for conversion.
- You can add several videos for conversion in a batch.
- Many output file types available based on the file you're converting.

Course Objective 1

This objective is completed when the following tasks are completed.

Training Task: Web Training

1 Click 'Edit Content'.

Edit Content & Structure

Add/modify/delete sections, pages or quizzes.

Copy content from other courses.

EDIT CONTENT

COPY CONTENT

2

Click the page name and choose Add > Page.

Manage

1.) Section 1

Add

Page

Rename

Page (Upload HTML)

Set Min Time Requirements

Quiz

Preview

Essay

Delete

Section

3

Click the Video icon on the toolbar.

Content Templates

Video Clip Template Settings

Filename

screencast.mp4

Please be sure to include a file extension

4

Enter the filename and click 'Add Page'.

Upload video to TrainCaster

- Click 'Edit Content'. Click where you want to insert the video. Select 'Add > Page' from the menu.
- Click the 'Video' icon on the toolbar.
- Enter the video filename and height/width.
- Click 'Add Page'. Browse to find the video for upload. Click OK.